2. POLICY

- A. Disclosure of Information from Student Records is generally governed by the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the State of California Education Code, and University of California Policies Applying to the Disclosure of Information of Student Records (Revised July 20, 2010) (University Policy). This Policy applies only to records pertaining to students in their capacity as students; it is not applicable to other records which are maintained for other purposes. See section III.M.2 for records which are not covered by this Policy but the disclosure of information from which is governed by the California Information Practices Act (IPA).

The purpose of University Policy is to provide reasonable interpretations of FERPA and to protect the Student's right of privacy as guaranteed by the Constitution of the State of California and the IPA. When the law is silent, University Policy provides that UC San Diego Officials and Department Records Custodians shall be guided by two principles: (1) the privacy of an individual is of great weight, and (2) the information in a student's file should be disclosed to the student on request.

- B. In implementing FERPA, University Policy has elected to consider the University as thirteen separate institutions, rather than as a single entity. The thirteen institutions are the nine general campuses, including UC San Diego, plus one health sciences campus, and three Department of Energy Laboratories operated by the University. Therefore, except with the student's consent, Personally Identifiable Information contained in Student Records maintained by UC San Diego may only be disclosed to the other facilities in compliance with University Policy Section 130.70 and Section IX.A of this Policy. Such information may be disclosed by UC San Diego Officials to the Office of the President, as permitted by University Policy Section 130.721 (a) (2) and Section IX of this Policy.
- C. This Policy supersedes previous UC San Diego Policy governing its subject matter and incorporates the requirements of FERPA and University Policy, as amended through July 20, 2010.

- D. A fee of $0.10 per page may be assessed and collected for copies of records requested by a student, unless the imposition of the fee effectively prevents a student from exercising the right to inspect and review the student's own records. - B. No student may be required to sign a form saying that he or she has not waived access to any confidential recommendation.
- C. A waiver may be revoked in writing for records which will be obtained or received after the revocation. Such a revocation shall not affect a Student's access to records obtained or received prior to the written notice of revocation.

Notification of Rights Under FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy ACT (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

- (1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within forty-five (45) days of the day UC San Diego receives a request for access. A student should submit to the Registrar, Dean, or head of the department a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The UC San Diego Official to whom the request was submitted will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records were not maintained by the UC San Diego Official to whom the request was submitted, that Official shall advise the student of the correct Official to whom the request should be addressed.
- (2) The right to request amendments of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. A student may ask UC San Diego Officials to amend a record that he or she believes is inaccurate or misleading. The student should write the UC San Diego Official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record he or she wants changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the UC San Diego Official decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, that Official will notify the student of the decision and advise the Student of the right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the Student when notified of the right to a hearing.
- (3) The right to consent to disclosures of Personally Identifiable Information contained in the Student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosures to UC San Diego or UC Officials with Legitimate Educational Interests. A UC San Diego or UC Official is a person employed by UC San Diego or UC in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom UC San Diego or UC has contracted (such as attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Regents; or a student serving on an Official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another UC San Diego or UC Official in performing his or her tasks. A UC San Diego or UC Official has a Legitimate Educational Interest if the Official needs to review an education record in order to perform a task or determination that is an employment responsibility or properly assigned subject matter for the Official.
- (4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by UC San Diego to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION

The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (revised June, 1976) permits UC San Diego and the University to release or publish, without the student's consent, items in the category of "Directory Information" as defined in UC San Diego PPM 160-2.III.D as the following: a student's name, e-mail address, telephone numbers, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, grade level, enrollment status (e.g. paid or unpaid enrollment, undergraduate or graduate, full time or part time), number of course units in which enrolled, degrees and honors received, the most recent previous educational institution attended, participation in Officially recognized activities, including intercollegiate athletics, and the name, weight, and height of participants on intercollegiate University athletic teams. Students may request in writing by the last day of registration each academic quarter that any or all Personally Identifiable Information from their records not be regarded as Directory Information. Forms for this purpose are available in the Registrar's Office. Students availing themselves of this right should understand what the consequences of this action may be. For example, if a request is made to withhold from disclosure a student's name and degrees and honors received, UC San Diego cannot make public any honors received by the student, e.g., the award of a Regents Scholarship or election to Phi Beta Kappa, and cannot include the student's name and degree earned in the UC San Diego commencement program without the written consent of the student. Similarly, if a request is made to withhold from disclosure, a student's name and date of attendance, a student's status as a student cannot be verified for potential employers without written consent of the student. Furthermore, if student's last instruction to UC San Diego was to withhold from disclosure the degree granted to that Student and the date on which the degree was conferred, that information cannot be confirmed for a third party in connection with the appointment of that graduate to a new position or published in connection with an honor that individual subsequently receives. Students may reverse the decision of a previous Quarter at registration for a new Quarter on the student data form or at any time by filing a form with the Registrar's Office indicating which items they now wish released.
