These are the dates that proposed agenda items which are not of an unusual or complicated nature are to be received in respective Office of the President Offices. These are the final dates; whenever possible items should be prepared and submitted earlier. In all cases, items requiring coordination among several Office of the President Officers should be forwarded well in advance of the date given above.

*One day policy meeting. Contact Policy and Records Administration x43394 for further information.

As indicated in item IV.B.1. of the PPM, individual campus offices establish due dates required by them for review prior to transmittal of Regents' items to Office of the President. Among such offices are Contracts and Grants (PPM 150-11), Academic Personnel, Vice Chancellor-Resource Management & Planning, etc. When preparing items for review of another office(s), if due dates have not been published, consult with the office(s) in question or contact the Campus Coordination and Review Contact for all UCSD items, extension 42552.
