GUIDELINES FOR STATIONERY, BUSINESS CARDS, AND COLLATERAL ITEMS

SCOPE

This policy applies to all employees, students and official vendors and or contractors at UC San Diego locations, including campuses and medical center facilities.

POLICY SUMMARY

It is the policy of UC San Diego that University stationery will be used only in the conduct of University business. This policy establishes restrictions and provides guidelines for this use.

DEFINITIONS

None

POLICY STATEMENT

University stationery shall be used only in the conduct of University business. University policies on the use of the University’s name and University seal shall apply to these guidelines in accordance with Section 92000 of the State Education Code.

This policy governs design specifications and use of three formats approved for stationery and collateral materials at UC San Diego. Approved letterhead formats are:

- Official University of California
- UC San Diego Logo (includes health sciences schools)
- UC San Diego Health (clinical medicine)

More information for UC San Diego Health is available in the UC San Diego Health Brand Guidelines: https://pulse.ucsd.edu/departments/marketing/orders/Pages/default.aspx#BusinessCardsQL.

Occasionally, specialized stationery may be required to support campus initiatives. Specialized stationery must be reviewed and approved by University Communications. All requests for exceptions to these stationery guidelines should be directed to University Communications.
RESPONSIBILITIES

University Communications is responsible for managing the UC San Diego stationery program. University Communications shall revise and maintain guidelines and resources, as well as review and approve or deny requests for exceptions to the stationery guidelines.

PROCEDURES

A. Approved Stationery Formats

1. Official University of California Stationery and Collateral

   The format adopted by the Office of the President in 1963 incorporates the University seal and a double rule enclosing the names of all campuses. The design, including the unofficial seal, typefaces, type sizes, and colors may not be altered, nor may it include photographs or additional artwork.

   a. Typeface

      Times Roman is the only typeface used for official University of California stationery at UC San Diego.

   b. Color

      Official University of California stationery may be printed in black ink only.

      Official University of California stationery may be used by campus units. Questions about official stationery should be directed to University Communications.

2. UC San Diego Logo Stationery and Collateral

   The format adopted by campus in 2012 is the only alternate stationery used by UC San Diego employees in the conduct of campus business. The design, including the campus logo, typefaces, type sizes, and colors may not be altered.

   a. Typeface

      Myriad Pro typeface is the only typeface used for UC San Diego Logo stationery.

   b. Color

      UC San Diego Logo stationery is printed in black, PMS 2767 (blue) and PMS 1245 (gold).

3. UC San Diego Health Stationery and Collateral

   The format adopted by UC San Diego Health is the only stationery used by UC San Diego Health clinical departments.

   Examples of approved UC San Diego Health stationery and a link to online ordering are available at https://pulse.ucsd.edu/departments/marketing/templates/Pages/default.aspx#eLetterheadQL. Your campus AD credentials are required to log in.
B. Approved Business Card Formats

There are four business card formats that are approved for use by campus employees conducting business on behalf of the University. They are listed in the UC San Diego Brand Guidelines (https://brand.ucsd.edu/using-the-brand/campus-stationary/index.html) and available to order from Imprints.

Examples of approved UC San Diego Health business cards and a link to online ordering are available at https://pulse.ucsd.edu/departments/marketing/orders/Pages/default.aspx#BusinessCardsQL. Your campus AD credentials are required to log in.

C. Identifying Information

Location of names, titles, departments and addresses on stationery and business cards is dictated by University policy. The following information may be included on letterhead stationery and business cards:

- Department or Unit Name
- Mail Code
- Nine-digit Zip Code
- Telephone Number
- Fax Number (optional)
- University E-Mail Address
- University Web Address
- Name*
- Official Title*

*Names and titles only appear on business cards and monarch-sized letterhead.

D. Other Stationery

1. UC San Diego flat and folded notecards, and matching envelopes, are available to order at Imprints.

2. Also available are monarch-sized letterhead and envelopes.

3. More information on available stationery items can be found in the UC San Diego Brand guidelines (https://brand.ucsd.edu/using-the-brand/campus-stationary/index.html).
