THE STUART COLLECTION

I. POLICY

The Regents of the University of California have entered into a collaboration agreement with the Stuart Foundation to place contemporary, outdoor sculpture on the San Diego campus to enrich the cultural, intellectual and scholarly life of the campus and community.

Therefore, the University shall elicit the advice of the Stuart Foundation regarding the quality and siting of all works of art unassociated with the Stuart Foundation to be placed on the San Diego campus, and shall endeavor to advance works that are of comparable artistic merit and are compatible with and sustain the reputation of the Collection. The University will seek this advice in a timely manner to influence its evaluation of opportunities for the placement or commissioning of works on the campus that might be unassociated with the Collection.

II. PROCEDURE

At the earliest possible time, all University staff and faculty will notify and coordinate with the Director of the Stuart Collection regarding any plans or opportunities for the acquisition, commissioning or placement of works of art on the campus (except for temporary works designed by students that do not directly affect the Collection.)
